THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit husiness entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have last few squals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railread, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, to times of the fluctuations of the market, and Haine, to Disser by panic, as the experience of the past to change is to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companics entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing precluid and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reference their outstanding plus on hand sufficient to refusare their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital troice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and forms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company, CASH CAPITAL OVER - ill well invested for the benefit of Pollsy holders, so that the profits of this wast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state. F. WHITAKEH, Agent.

A GREAT LAND PROJECT .- Steps are in progress for the organization of a company London, with a capital of £500,000 sterng, over two million five hundred thousand dollars, to be devoted to the purchase and settlement of lands in Illinois. The Prairie Land Emigration Company states that a mer, and from Liverpool every Wednesday, calling at conditional purchase has been made of 250. 000 acres of prairie land from the Illinois Central Railroad Company, "that when the sale is completed the company will not be in any way connected with the Illinois Central Railroad or its affairs, but will hold the land by a direct tenure in freehold." The scheme is said to be similar to that of the Canada Land Company which was started in London some years since, and which has successfully established a large population upon its lands, and proved an extremely

CAPITAL AND SUBJECTS.

(CAPITAL AND SUBJECTS)

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real meets. In point of selvency and reliability and homorable dealing, they have but four equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluorinations of the market, and that p.a. times of pasic, as the experience of the past tenches, to become almost, if not entirely, valuelses. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sidel statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies aways have and keep over and above their engital tartes the amount, and in nost instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for libered patronage.

Politics issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All looses promptly adjusted and tail. Capital and Surhius, - -

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM PRESIDENTS OF COLLEGES,
Within the last few works the publishers have received flattering testimenials of the merits of this edition, from nearly Transv Presidents of the merits of this edition, from nearly Transv Presidents of the many of the leading Colleges of the United States. Among them are non Presidents Freitinghuysen of Rutgers, Walker of Harvard, Hopkins of Williams, Stearns of Amherst, Cammings of Middletown, Nott of Union, Weyland of Providence, Jackson of Hobart, Woods of Brunewick, Lord of Dartmouth, Pease of Burlington, Ballon of Turks, Gale of Galewille, Clampi of Holy Cross, Murpby of Abingrou, Labatee of Middlebury, Andrews of Marietta, Pisner of Hamilton, Reed of Shurtliff, Stortwant of Illinois, Reynolds of Illinois, Collins of Wilkinson, Anderson of Rochestor, Walkace of Monmouth, Curtis of Knex &c. In them are expressions like the following:—

"An henor to American selence, taste and criticism."

"An epiloring value and authority." "Never found any work which so uniformly settaffied in judicies." "Has ever since leven my constant companion in my practice.

"An erduring value and authority." "Never found any work which so midferrally settafied my inquiries." "Has ever since been my constant companion in my practice at the bat, and for the last five years upon the bench.—I have ever found it a safe connection, and on indispensable help in the preparation and decision of cases." For the sake of my country and the English language. I rejoice in the wonderful standard excellence, as well as celebrity, your Dictionary has attained. It is a work for the present and for all conting thme." "Stands" inquestionably preeminent." "There seems every prospect that if will be the standard book for this country, at least, if not for England. I am content it should be so." "This truly great and national work." "A complete apparatus for all purposes of reading and understanding English and American literature. It is difficult to conceive of snything that could be added to fit for these ands." How She Caught Him.

'Can't think of such a thing! What, pay that large bill these hard times? Wife you are entirely too extravagant; it must be stopped at once, or we shall fail, said Edward Jones to his pert little wife, as she held before him a bill of sixty dollars. Her eyes beamed with mishief, and now, making he wryest face imaginable, she said:

'Now Edward, I hope you don't call six-ty dollars a large bill!'
'Sixty dollars! yes, I do call it a large amount for these hard times. Where in the world do you suppose I can get all the mon-ey from? It is very certain that the money cannot be picked up in the street. I verily believe that women think it makes no kind of difference how much money they expend upon dress. Why in the world do you wenr such finery? It certainly does not add to yourlooks at all. Beauty when unadorned, s adorned the most,' so says the poet.'
'It's my opinion, Edward, that the gentlemen are fur more extravagant than the ladies. They are forever puffing away at a cigar which costs at least six cents. But it is nothing, I know, for them to smoke up sixty cents a day—oh no! that is not exravagant, by no means—not a bit of it.

Minnie tossed her head and pouted ther pretty lips, which looked like newly ripened strawberries. She was waiting to hear what answer Mr. Jones would give to her remarks. "Well, you know, Minnie, that smoking a luxury which gentlemen so much en

"Well, Lwant to know if we don't enjoy dressing ?'' "But such fine dressing is something so superfluous."

"I suppose then smoking is not superfluous at all; would you not think me deranged if I were to roll up a parcel of bank notes and burn them? I know you would; Consider smoking just the same thing."
"Well, now Minnie, do you know how nany I smoke during the day?"

"No, for I never took the trouble to "Well, I am exceedingly moderate in moking—only six or eight." "Oh, I don't care how many cigars you smoke. Tell me if you are going to pay this bill; a small one it is." An ironical smile followed this last re-"Small bill, Minnie! Nonsense, where am I to get sixty dollars from?"

"That I cannot tell." "You ought, then, to be more prudent, and not incur such expenses since you know it is out of my power to meet the payment of such large bills."

"You say then you cannot pay it."

"I do; and furthermore, that you must not contract any more large or small bills, either."

"You do not owe for any eigars, then?" I pay for all I use—yes, all, the very

"I pay for all I use—yes, all, the very cent."

"Mr. Jones sented himself very complacently in his arm chair, and commenced puffing away at a cigar. Minnie could not refrain from smiling at his appearance, for she knew very well, when she drew the curtain aside, he would not look quite so composed.

THE NATIONAL DEBT OF ENGLAND.—The sum required to put London in a state of defence is tweive millions of pounds ster-ling. Parliament debated the question whether the money should be borrowed for definite or indefinite period, whereupon The Loudon Times says:
"Our national debt is the nearest approach to the infinite yet achieved by man. So little can we grasp it, and so much do we class it with other eternities and other infinities, that, in order to be practical, we take bits of it, and play in our fancy with an odd ten million or so. What know we about a thou-sand millions sterling? It is like the distance of a fixed star, or the bulk of the sun. or the length of a comet's tail, or the velocity of light. House and land, stock and delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weadly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their unerits over all other Tonics now in use. How She Caught Him.

Can't think of such a thing! What, pay that large bill these hard times? Wife you are entirely too extravagant; it must be stopped at once, or we shall fail, said Edward Jones to his port little wife, as she held before him a bill of sixty dollars. Her ever heamed with mishing and row making eyes beamed with mishief, and now, making the wryest face imaginable, she said:

the wryest face imaginable, she said:

Now Edward, I hope you don't call sixly dollars a large bill!

(Sixty dollars I yes, I do call it a large amount for these hard times. Where in the amount for these hard times. Where in the world do you suppose I can get all the money from? It is very certain that the money cannot be picked up in the street. I verily helieve that women think it makes no kind of difference how much money they expend upon dress. Why in the world do you wear such linery? It certainly does not add to npon dress. Why in the world do you wear such linery? It certainly does not all to your looks at all. Beauty when unadorned, is adorned the most,' so says the poet.'

It's my opinion, Edward, that the gentlemen are far more extravagant than the ladies. They are forever puffing away at a cigar which roots at least six cents. But it is nothing, I know, for them to smoke up sixty cents a day—oh no! that is not extravagant, by no means—not u bit of it.' Minnie tossed her head and pouted her pretly lips, which looked like newly ripened strawherries. She was waiting to hear what answer Mr. Jones would give to her remarks.

"Well, now Minnie, do you know how many I smoke during the day?"
"No, for I never took the trouble to count them."
"Well, I am exceedingly moderate in smoking—only six or eight."
"Oh, I don't care how many eigars you smoke. Tell me if you are going to pay this ball; a small one it is." this bill; a small one it is."

An ironical small of followed this last re-

"You say then you cannot pay it."

"I do; and furthermore, that you must not contract any more large or small bills, it you."

"You do not owe for any eigars, then?"
"I pay for all I use—yes, all, the very ent."
Mr. Jones seated himself very compla-out, Jones sented minsel very compla-contly in his arm chair, and commence putting nway at a cigar. Minnie could not refrain from smilling at his appearance, for she know very well, when she drow the cur-tam aside, he would not look quite so composed.

THE NATIONAL DEST OF ENGLAND,-The The Actional Dear of Endian. The sum required to put London in a state of defence is tweive millions of pounds sterling. Parliament debated the question whether the money should be borrowed for a definite or indefinite period, whereupon The London Times says:
"Our national debt is the nearest approach

to the infinite yet achieved by man. So lit-tle can we grasp it, and so much do we class it with other eternities and other infinities. it with other eterrities and other intuities, that, in order to be practical, we take bits of it, and play in our funcy with an odd ten million or so. What know we about a thou-sand millions sterling? It is like the dis-tance of a fixed star, or the bulk of the sur, tance of a tixed star, or the bulk of the sun-or the length of a comet's tail, or the veloci-ty of light. House and land, stock and share, nortgage bill - everything has its ups and downs; but that which changes least is the three per cents. The commercial spirit loves their modest, faithful, constant charloves their modest, fattaid, constant that-acter, their equal mind, their moderation in prosperity, their firmness in adversity, their help in time of need, their open, honest countenance, like the good wine that needs

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860. This part of the history of the country that under a doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you take to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New North New Intervention and projected shavery in the delight to call squatter accordingly, the people of New Mexico have introduced and preciseted shavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into shave territory, more than fire times the size of the state of New York—Under this decrine slavery has been extended from the Hio Grande to the Bull of Carifornia, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more stave territory than you ever claimed."

Fusion in New York.

The open fusion of the Douglas and know-nothing parties in New York is made the occasion of setting up a claim of that state for the Douglas ticket. To be sure, the same claim was made before this coalition, but there is an evident increase of assurance and bravado since the nuptials .--The lion and the lamb have now openly lain down together, and the result of the union is to be the election of the Douglas We are certainly at a loss to see how this open coalition is to benefit Douglas. All the men engaged in it, or who will be influ-the same "perspicuity" leads them to in-dulge the hope that N. Senator. If the success of the movement only tends to throw the election into the house of representatives, where Douglas is absolutely certain to be beaten, and thereby secures either the aid or the apathy of the Breckinridge party, then many of the honest Douglas men will bolt the arrangement. It will be impossible to make the people forget with what persistence and rancor, Donglas and his friends have ever, publicly Syria .- A Beirut correspondent of the at least, denounced the know nothings, and | Boston Congregationalist writes : how they have found one of their most ef factive influences against the republican party in charging its association with the party in charging its association with the men and children. Thus is the prophecy "dark lentern" fraternity. To now make of Jeremiah again receiving its fulfillment: "Concerning Damasous, Hamath is conan open coalition with that fraternity, as they have in New York, is to confess themselves the grossest hypocrites, and destroy their influence with a large class of their party, or admit a total want of principle in adopting only measure, no matter how in. consistent with all their former professions, or however desperate, to rescue themselves from impending ruin.

For ourselves, we have no fears of the result of this adulterous combination. The question now agitating the country is not a mere division or an entire engrossment of the offices and emoluments of the government. There is something above and beyond this. As is aptly remarked by a co- sufficient money to enable him to live in yond this. As is apply remarked by a consistence of the confused condition of the particularly afraid of the Detectives, and will seldom attempt to job when they know them to be near. It frequently occurs that positive differences of opinion among the at places of amusement a thief will present

No league of selfish or scheming party leaders can prevent the expression of the sentiment of the people, or ignore the great question which underlies all the political movements of the day. Tricky demagogues or unfaithful representatives will be laid aside, and the arrangements of the caucus or the decisions of the secret council will be thwarted by the masses who are parties to no such intrigues and who are controlled by no such influences:

PENNSYLVANIA. - The Boston Journal eavs :- "A gentleman of this city who has inst arrived from Pennsylvania, where he enjoyed extensive advantages for noting the political aspects in that state, says there is no more doubt that Pennsylvania will go for Lincoln than there is of Vermont. He conversed with Col. Forney, who unhesitatingly expressed his opinion that Pennsylvania would support Lincoln. It is believed that the coalition will do the republicans more good than harm, for the reasons that thousands of Douglas men will positively withdraw from the contest in preference to lending their aid to Breckinridge. The democratic meetings in the state are generally quite devoid of spirit and enthusiasm."

A good prospect of rain, if it dont fail. | and violence.

Political Prospects.

We have, in another article, alluded in general terms to the coalition of the Dougas leaders and know nothings of New York, and stated the reasons why we think the union of these elements will not be productive of the results predicted from it by the contracting parties to it. In this opinion we are strengthened by the confidence expressed by Senator Seward in relation to the vote of the state of which he is so well ets, and it is understood that he will disqualified to judge. "Senator Seward, (well | courage the organization of the party in opsays the Cincinnati Gazette,) is not a man to be mistaken as to the actual state of political affairs in his own state, nor would he stake his reputation on a prediction that New York would go for Lincoln by a plurality of 80,000, without thoroughly believing what he says. Such was his promise give their united support to Lincoln. He campaign. The committee were satisfied for that state, in a recent speech made in New England. Those Douglasite blow- united opposition should be directed to the mond convention do not desire any union ers,' on the other hand, who pretend to have a hope of carrying New York, in spite of the formidable democratic schism there, know that their candidate has not the slightest chance in the empire state, or of a solitary electoral vote in New England."

In other states, the Gazette states the prospect candidly and fairly. There is, The Missouri Compromise had its origin to the hearts of all particular men who desired to preserve and portpetude in the same split to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to serve the social bond of Union—and all the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had its excitation of the Compromise had its excitation of the Compromise had its origin to the hearts of the constitution of the Lated States, conceived in the same split to fraterna affection, and calculate that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that the remocratic visited Boston to approve the purchase by a well known horse dealer of five superble visited Boston to approve the purchase by a well known horse that the remocratic visited Boston to approve the purchase that says that paper, the same fatal democratic racy perfectly united, the result could not he different. Ex President Van Buren's Predicrion.—The New York correspondent of the Rochester Union writes that, last week. while at Sharon Springs, in conversation on political topics with a friend, Martin Van Buren said—"I am not much given to making political predictions, but you may bear this in mind, which I now predict, namely, that Mr. Douglas will carry the state of New York in November."

He always keeps his promises faithfully, for he knows that if any one of the audience is robbed, the Detectives will be sure to arrest him immediately.

ALAS, TOO TRUE .- When a rakish youth goes astray, friends gather round him in order to restore him to the paths of virtue.— Gentleness and kindness are lavished upon him to bring him back to innocence and peace. No one would ever suspect he had sinned. But when a poor, confiding girl is betrayed, she receives the brand of society, and is henceforth driven from the way of virtue. The betrayer is honorably received —there is no peace for her this side of the grave. Society has no loving, helping hand for her, no smile of peace, no voice of forgiveness. There is a deep wrong in this, and fearful are the consequences. And yet, to our shame be it said, in this Christian land, we boast of humanity and kindness to females!

EMERSON ETHERIDGE IN COLLUSION WITH THE BLACK REPUBLICANS.—The Pittsburgb Gazette, of the 6th of August, says a Terre Haute correspondent of the Newark Advertiser, gives the following important information respecting the contest in Indiana

"In regard to the Bell and Everett move ment in the state, nothing positive can yet be known as to their running an electora ticket in Indiana. Hon. Richard W. Thomp son, the acknowledged leader of the party has expressed his determination to support both the republican state and electoral tick position to the support of Lincoln and Hamlin. The Hon. E. Etheridge, of Tennessee, on his return from Washington, was exhorted them to cast aside all ideas of supporting a Bell ticket in Indiana, and an active and powerful prosecution of the overthrow of the democratic party, which could only be done by defeating their candidates in as many states as possible. He said if he lived in Indiana he would vote for Lincoln; but as he lived in a state where his own ticket had a chance, he should vote for Bell. This advice from a man of the position held by Mr. Etheridge in his party, has great weight with the members of that party in Indiana."

CRAMP IN SWIMMING .-- It is well known that the cramp is one of the greatest terrors of the swimmer, but it is not the cramp in tself which drowns him-it is his fear.--The cramp seldom attacks more than one imb, and if the swimmer will but stretch the cramped limb out to its utmost, he will still have his other limbs in active use to reach the shore. The pain, as is well known, is great, but this must be borne if you would save your life. If the cramp seizes the leg, turn over on your back, stretch the limb out stiffly, and in a few moments it may be gone, and however great the pain, do not relax the use of that limb. as no muscular action can increase cramp but the reverse. If the stomach is attacked which will probably prevent the use of the legs, bear with the pair, and float on the back making use of the hands until you get within reach of assistance.

JUDGE COLLAMER ON BELL,-In a recent speech, Senator Collamer of Vermont thus referred to the "Constitutional Union" canlidate for the Presidency.

" Mr. Bell, the other slave candidate, represents nothing in particular, but anything and everything in general. He is like the Irishman who was desirous of pleading neither 'guilty' nor 'not guilty,' but wishing to let the whole subject drop. Like the clerk who refused to work because his oath required him only to support the Constitution, Mr. Bell was going to do nothing but support the Constitution. He is offered as support the Constitution. He is offered as the representative of 'compromise,' which is against the spirit of the times and the emergency of the case. There was something manly and dignified in the rejection of the overtures of the Breckinridge party by the Douglasites, but this coalition with a misarable little faction, as impotent in numbers as in influence, is contemptible.

If anything further was necessary to fix the vote of New York for Lincoln, this alliance will do so, for it shows how little of principle there is left in Douglasism. The auction has been held—the property struck off-but there will be a failure in the delivery.—Chicago Journal.

Taner on Slavery in 1818.—At a camp meeting held in Washington county Maryland, August, 1818, Rev. Jacob Gruber a Methodist minister, preaching a remarka ble sermon exposing the evils of slavery For this he was tried on the charge of in citing insurrection and acquitted. Mr. Taney, now Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was attorney for Mr. Gruber, and in the course of his speech

"There is no law that forbids us to speak of slavery as we think of it. Any man has a right to publish his opinion on that subect whenever he pleases. It is a subject of national concern, and may at all times be freely discussed. Mr. Gruber did quote the language of our great act of national independence, and insisted on the princi-ples contained in that venerated instrument. He did rebuke those masters who, in the exercise of power, are deaf to the calls of humanity; and he warned them of the evils they might bring upon themselves. He did speak with abhorrence of those repules who live by trading in human flesh, and enrich themselves by tearing the husband from the wife, the infant from the bosom of the mother: and this, I am instructed, was the head and front of his offending, Shall I content myself with saying that he had a ight to this? there is no law to punish him? So far is he from being the object of pun shment in any form of proceeding, that we are prepared to maintain the same principles, and to use, if necessary, the same lan-guage here in the temple of justice, and in presence of those who are the ministers o the law. A hard necessity, indeed, compels us to endure the evil of slavery for a time. It was imposed upon us by another nation while we were yet in a state of colonia vassalage. It cannot be easily or suddenly removed. Yet while it continues, it is a blot on our national character, and every real lover of freedom confidently hopes that it will be effectually, though it must be gradually, wiped away, and earnestly looks for the means by which this necessary obect may be best attained. And until it shall be accomplished, until the time shall come when we can point without a blush to the language held in the Declaration of Independence, every friend of humanity will seek to lighten the gelling chain of slavery, and better, to the utmost of his power, the wretched condition of the slave."

tew days ago, Hon. Wm. H. Seward made a short speech in Boston, he being then on his return from Maine. The following is the conclusion of his remarks at Boston "I desire now only to say to you that you have arrived at the last stage of this con flict before you reach the triumph [cheers] which is to inaugurate this great policy into the government of the United States. [Great cheering.] You will bear yourselves manfully. It hehooves you, solid men of Boston—if you are here—and if you are not here, then the lighter men—all the men of Massachusetts-to bear enward and forward first in the ranks the flag of freedom I am somewhat turned about, I confess to yon, by the strange tongues and dielects which I hear, but I believe that I shall speak correctly if I say that I have been down East; and I bring the assurances from that quarter that the whole East is coming to this conflict with the resolution the determination and the confidence of victory. [Applause.] I have heard some democrats make strong claims upon a popular vote in the state of New York. I have not often been mistaken, but I will venture to correct these remarks, which, of course are made in ignorance of the truth, by say ing to you what I said to the republicans of Maine, when they told me that it was moderate in them to say that they would have 20,000 majority for Lincoln and Hamlin, STYLE, PRICE AND QUALITY that if you set their majority at their own figures, and then multiply it by four, you will approximate to the majority in the state approximate to the majority in the of New York. [Great cheering.] I have this same testimony to give you substanti-ally in relation to all the free states, togethr with the assurance that for the first time this banner will be unfurled with slavery in many of the slave states. [Applause] But let not your thoughts or expectations be confined to the present hour. Tell your fellow citizens that with this victory comes the end of the power of slavery in the country. I think I may assume that a democrat is a man who maintains the creed of one or the other of the branches of the democratic party at the present day, and assuming that to be so, I tell you that the last democrat in the United States is already

Political Prospects.

We have, in another article, alluded in general terms to the coalition of the Douglas leaders and know nothings of New York, and stated the reasons why we think the union of these elements will not be productive of the results predicted from it by the contracting parties to it. In this opinion we are strengthened by the confidence expressed by Senator Seward in relation to the vote of the state of which he is so well ets. and it is understood that he will disqualified to judge. "Senator Seward, (well | courage the organization of the party in opsays the Cincinnati Gazette,) is not a man to be mistaken as to the actual state of political affairs in his own state, nor would he stake his reputation on a prediction that New York would go for Lincoln by a plurality of 80,000, without thoroughly believing what he says. Such was his promise for that state, in a recent speech made in New England. Those Douglasite 'blowers,' on the other hand, who pretend to have a hope of carrying New York, in spite of the formidable democratic schism there, know that their candidate has not the slight. for Lincoln; but as he lived in a state where est chance in the empire state, or of a solitary electoral vote in New England." In other states, the Gazette states the prospect candidly and fairly. There is. says that paper, the same fatal democratic as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democrat has the remo est expectation that cither of those state,, by any device, can be prevented from giving their electoral votes to Lincoln and Hamlin. Were the democracy perfectly united, the result could not be different. Illinois and Indiana are the ever had any honest hope, and that has long since been demonstrated to be ground- $2,000 to $3,000 a pair. less. Illinois is now one of the most reliable of republican states-scarcely less than Ohio or Vermont-and the nomination of Lincoln was all that was needed to make a republican triumph there, in this canvass, an absolute certainty. Indiana is no longer reckoned as doubtful, as any mau, who has taken pains to inform him self, must by this time clearly understand.

The new horses are fifteen hands high, having a fine action and a speed of not less than 2:50. He is the representatives of 'masterly inactivity,' when our position, domestic and foreign, requires us to be up and doing."

POLITICAL DEMORALIZATION .--- If there was anything further needed to show how utterly abandoned Douglasism has become, it is furnished in its fusion with the American party in New York.

It behooves you, solid men of Boston-if you are here-and if you are not here, then the lighter men-all the men of Massachusetts-to bear onward and forward first in the ranks the flag of freedom. I am somewhat turned about, I confess to you, by the strange tongues and dislects which I hear, but I believe that I shall speak correctly if I say that I have been down East; and I bring the assurances from that quarter that the whole East is coming to this conflict with the resolution, the determination and the confidence of victory. [Applause.] I have heard some democrats make strong claims upon a popular vote in the state of New York. I have not often been mistaken, but I will venture to correct these remarks, which, of course, are made in ignorance of the truth, by saying to you what I said to the republicans of Maine, when they told me that it was moderate in them to say that they would have 20,000 majority for Linegla and Hamlin, STYLE, PRICE AND QUALITY that if you set their majority at their own figures, and then multiply it by four, you will approximate to the majority in the state of New York. [Applause] But let not your thoughts or expectations be comprising one of the best stocks ever brought into this confined to the present hour. Tell your fellow citizens that with this victory comes the end of the power of slavery in the country. The crop is very large, and field hands getting $2,50 per day, and were scarce at that. To do the business of the road this fall, the company would have to run freight trains at night, loading and unloading by day. The equipment of the road has been doubled, but even now will scarcely do the work required. Mr. Ogden denied the truth of the statement that the road had been carrying freight without profit.- Chicago Democrat.

The Coming Tournament. While there will be much of the useful and the practical in the coming National Horse Show and Ladies' Equestrian Fair, there will also be much of the romantic and the beautiful to adorn and embellish it .-Somebody has said-we do not now recollect who-that if he were asked what were the two most beautiful objects in nature, he would reply "a splendid horse and a magnificent woman." Without stopping to criticise the taste of the enthusiast, in placing "God's last best gift to man," side by side with any other creation of nature's handiwork, we have simply to say that we have no doubt the noblest and most beautiful specimens of both will be here during the

In speaking of this fair, we have already said that from every direction we learn that fine and fast horses will be here to compete for the prizes; and we know that in our own city and its environs, not a few are in training for the occasion, while the private gentleman who has an eye for the gay and stately carriage horse, and the farmer look ing for the strong and plodding draft horse or the useful roadster, will each be gratified, and able, if he desires, to make selections for himself.

But the feature of the occasion will be the competition for the prizes by the lady equestrians. A fine, gold hunting-cased watch, and chain to match, are not undesirable objects to any one; but when they can be had by riding a mile, we would were we's lady, try for them though we were compelled to pace that distance ten times over. We happen to know, however, that there are many ladies exactly of our opinion, for they are coming from Iowa, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota and all over Wisconsin .-This fact added to the military display expected on the occasion, cannot but make the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th days of September next gala days.

We would not willingly deceive ourselves, or our friends at a distance, but from the notices of the press, and from letters every day received by the managers of the Fair, we confidently believe there will be a larger assemblage of fair women and brave men congregated together in this beautiful city in September next, than upon any other occasion known in the history of Wisconsin. Large as the crowd expected is, however, ample arrangements have been made for their reception and accommodation. We can say therefore to every body come to the Fair; every body with but one exception-the old bachclor. Let him stay at home. We would not subject him to the punishment he will be compelled to hear, for dark and flashing eyes will send their arrows at him, stray and sunny curls will float in the sun beams and dazzle his brain, future. Let him not come. The fair will not be good for him.

No News from the La Crosse Conven-TION.—In consequence of the great amount of electricity in the atmosphere, we are unable to obtain despatches from the La Crosse Congressional Convention. Should news be received from there this evening, an extra will be issued.

CLUB MRETING .- We learn by a letter received from Beloit this morning that Mr. Codding will pass his appointments both for Janesville and Beloit. He goes to Illinois, but may return to this state in September. The meeting of the club will, however, be held, and Messrs. Williams, Sloan, Hawes and Comstock are announced to speak.

It is probable that the nomination for congress made at La Crosse will be received before the meeting adjourns.

Por the Daily Gazette.

MESSES. EDITORS :- Your correspondent, "Robert," set me to thinking, and in answer to his request to be informed of the meaning of the word "vim." would cite him to a Latin lexicon. It is from "vis," and as rendered there, means "power, strength, force, vigor, fury, violence." It has a plural of "vires," but rarely used. The general acceptation of the word is "spirit, life." I am not versed in mystic lore, but this is undoubtedly the true signification of this little word. K.

A VALUABLE INVENTION .- At the Big Mill in this city, yesterday, we saw in operstion one of Akin & Babcock's grain separators and silent feeders combined. It feeds the grain without noise or jar, at the same time extracting the heated air caused by friction in grinding, also separating oats, straw and every kind of foul stuff lighter than wheat. Its construction is simple, not likely to get out of order, a small bell ringing when the grain is exhausted. In fact it is a real automatic machine, doing everything to perfection that is claimed for it .-Every miller should have one. We are well acquainted with some of the millers who have given the agent their certificates of its merits and know them to be men qualified to judge in such matters.

All millers wishing to give the machine a trial will address M. K. Jones, Janesville. Newell has the Atlantic and maga zines generally, for September.

GETTING READY.—Ben Bornheim is getting ready for the active fall trade in prospect. He is now receiving a very large and very excellent stock of clothing, and like the sensible trader he is, advertises it freely. Ben has become very generally known throughout the country, and is determined to extend his acquaintance and his trade. He will do this, for he keeps a full assortment of seasonable goods, and sells at such a price that his customers are very likely to call again. See his advertisement,

The Michigan Central railroad has earn ed $9,974.09 more in the month of August 1850, than in the same month of 1857.-The Galena and Chicago Union has increased $11,439.60 in the same month.

Proceedings of the City Connell. ADJOURNED MEETING, TUESDAY EVENING, Aug. 21.

Present-All the aldermen but Mr. Belton and the Mayor. Ald. Dickson in the chair.

The rules were suspended, and an order for grading Bridge street adonted.

Ald, Dickson reported an ordinance defining the duties and powers of the chief engineer of the fire department and his assistants, which was discussed, amended, and laid over until the next meeting.

A communication was presented from the officers and a large portion of the members of Rock River engine company No. 1, surrendering their engine and hose to the city, and asking that the company be disbanded. Referred to the fire department committee.

Ald, Bates introduced an order for opening a road through the land of David Cobb, provided Mr. Cobb will make a deed of the land to the city on the payment of $50 from the highway and bridge fund.

Considerable discussion ensued as to the proper manner of effecting this object, and the order was finally referred to the aldermen from the 3d ward, who were requested to report at the next meeting of the council. Adjourned.

WHEN IS THAT SHOW COMING?-Today quite a number of amusing political carricatures, most of them at the expense of the "harmonious democracy," were displayed in the window of Newell's bookstore. Among a crowd who were enjoying them was one who evidently failed to appreciate them, and turning to a bystander, with great gravity, asked "when is that show coming." Little as he understood the design of "the pictures," he unconsciously asked a very pertinent question. That show is coming the 6th of next November. The admittance will be free to the crowd, but some of the proprietors will find it a losing concern.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market. Reported for the Janesville Gazetta BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, AUGUST 22, 1880. The wheat market opened this morning at a decline of lace per hushel on yesterday's prices. Early sales ranging at 63668 for common to best samples of spring; but after about ten o'clock, buyers seemed quite anx-lous and the market became considerably excited; some dealers that had stood back with their months shut du ring early cales then bid freely and with a strong competition. Prices in some cases reached as high as 73c for milling spring, and 60 for shipping. Towards night, however, there was a weaker feeling. The market closed quiet at 67a70 for milling, and 04a87 for shipping Receipts of coarse grains rather light and demand good at quotations. The latest advices from eastern and foreign markets were quite hyorable, but the recent heavy advance in late frieghts has checked the upward tendency in the Chicago and Milwaukee market, and the probability is that prices will run low as long as freights remain so high. We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT--white winter 70a80c; good to choice milling spring 67a70; common to fair shipping 64a67. OATS-quiet at 15a17c per bushel.

BARLEY-ranges from 25a30c per 50 lbs., for common to fair.

OORN-shelled at 83a35c per 60 lbs. Ear 25c per 70 lbs. POTATOES-plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER-rather scarce at 12a13. EGGS-in demand at 7a7 14c per dozen. HIDES-Green, 6 to 51/2; Dry, salted, 10; Dry, flint FLOUR-spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY-chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7m8. WOOL-mages at 25a40c per pound for common to pest clips, with but very little comming forward. Chicago Market.

Tuesday evening, August 21. Market active, but irregular. The ruling prices paid wore 88a90 c for No. 1 red winton, 82c for No. 2 do., and 60a62 for rejected spring. There was a lair demand for corp, and a considerable business was done at 31a313/20 for No. 2 in store, and 32a33 for No. 1 do. Flour was more active at a decline, and some 1900 bbis were taken at 4a4,10 for good to choice spring wheat extra, and 4,-75 for white winter. Outs were dull at 17c in store.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Hissonr's

From Bouglay Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850. From Douglar Speech in Springfield, III., 1860. The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious. Union—on origin aking to that of the constitution of the United States, conseived in the same spirit of fraterinal infliction, and the same spirit of fraterinal to some distribution. All the evidences of public uplino in that any seem to militarte that this confirmation had become consisted in the hards of the American people as a socret thing, which so ruthless hund would ever be ruckless enough to distribute.

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860. From Douglas' Speech at Provincence, Juge 3, 1988. My friend over there—friend or enemy, 3s the creature between the Missouri Compromise. (Chercy I have not the slightest office telling him all he desired to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BLL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I notice that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and properly of every kind (inclining states) in the ter-ritories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Zehasen.

From Donglas' Speech in the Schate, May 10, 1880. Frod Donglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1869.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you aduly to make the continuous constitution of the continuous control of the continuous distriction of the continuous continuous continuous distriction of the continuous continuous

Fusion in New York.

The open fusion of the Douglas and know-nothing parties in New York is made the occasion of setting up a claim of that state for the Douglas ticket. To be sure, the same claim was made before this coalition, but there is an evident increase of assurance and bravado since the nuptials.---The lion and the lumb have now openly lain down together, and the result of the union is to be the election of the Douglas We are certainly at a loss to see how this open coalition is to benefit Douglas. All the men engaged in it, or who will be influenced by it, would have voted for Douglas without it, while it is reasonable to suppose that it will drive many from him to the Breekinridge faction who would otherwise have adhered to the fortunes of the Illinois Senator. If the success of the movement only tends to throw the election into the house of representatives, where Douglas is absolutely certain to be beaten, and thereby recures either the aid or the apathy of the Breckinridge party, then many of the honest Donglas men will bolt the arrangement. If, on the contrary, its success will enure to the real benefit of Douglas, then the Breckinridge men will give it a stern oppocargo of wheat or a bale of cotton.

It will be impossible to make the people forget with what persistence and rancor, Douglas and his friends have ever, publicly al least, denounced the know hothings, and bow they have found one of their most of, fective influences against the republican party in charging its association with the dank lantern" fraternity. To now make an open coalition with that fraternity, as they have in New York, is to confess themselves the grossest hypocrites, and destroy party, or admit a total want of principle in adopting any measure, no matter how inconsistent with all their former professions, or however desperate, to rescue themselves from impending ruin.

For ourselves, we have no fears of the result of this adolerous combination. The The New York Tribune publishes an article question now agitating the country is not a mere division or an entire engressment of the offices and encoluments of the govern-ly through to New Orleans or some of the ment. There is something above and beyand this. As is aptly remarked by a cu-sufficient money to enable him to live in idleness for several months. These are temporary-" The confused condition of the temporary—"The confused condition of the particularly afraid of the Detectives, and opposition to the republicans, is not the will seldom attempt to job when they know work of politicians, but it is the result of sentiment of the people, or ignore the great question which underlies all the political movements of the day. Tricky demagogues or unfaithful representatives will be laid aside, and the arrangements of the caucus or the decisions of the secret council will be thwarted by the masses who are parties to no such intrigues and who are controlled by no such influences.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Boston Journal says:-"A gentleman of this city who has just urrived from Pennsylvania, where he enjoyed extensive advantages for noting the nolitical aspects in that state, says there is no more doubt that Pennsylvania will go for Lincoln than there is of Vermont. He conversed with Cor. Forney, who unhesitation for her, no smile of peace, no voice of for levels of the conversed his convincent has Pennsyl.

There is no peace and pennsyl grave. Society has no toving, helping hand for her, no smile of peace, no voice of for giveness. There is a deep wrong in this, tingly expressed his opinion that Penusylvania would support Lincoln. It is believed that the coalition will do the republicans more good than harm, for the reasons that ness to females! thousands of Douglas men will positively withdraw from the contest in preference to lending their aid to Breckintidge. The democration meetings in the state are generated aim, and he went to saying bad ally quite devoid of spirit and enthusiasm." " good prospect of rain, if it dont fail, and violence,

Political Prospects.

We have, in another article, alluded in general terms to the coalition of the Dougins lenders and know nothings of New York, and stated the reasons why we think the union of these elements will not be pro ductive of the results predicted from it by the contracting parties to it. In this opinion we are strengthened by the confidence expressed by Senator Seward in relation to the vote of the state of which he is so well ets, and it is understood that he will disqualified to judge. "Senator Seward, (well courage the organization of the party in opsays the Cincinnati Gazette,) is not a man to be mistaken as to the actual state of political affairs in his own state, nor would be stake his reputation on a prediction that New York would go for Lincoln by a plurality of 80,000, without thoroughly believing what be says. Such was his promise for that state, in a recent speech made in New England. Those Douglasite blowline Mannin. The Hon. E. Etheridge, of Tennessee, on his return from Washington, was the guest of Col. Thompson for a few days, and whea in the city was serenuded by his political friends, when he made a speech and exhorted them to cast aside all ideas of supporting a Bell ticket in Indiana, and give their united support to Lincoln. He advised them that all the efforts of the united opposition should be directed to the overthrow of the democratic party, which New England. Those Douglasite 'blowers,' on the other hand, who pretend to have a hope of carrying New York, in spite of the formidable democratic schism there, know that their candidate has not the slightest chance in the empire state, or of a solitary electoral vote in New England."

prospect candidly and fairly. There is, party in Indiana." says that paper, the same fatal democratic division in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as in New York, and of such a character that no reasonable and well informed democrat has the remotest expectation that ciprevented from giving their electoral votes to Lincoln and Hamlin. Were the democbe different. Illinois and Indiana are the verile color, a deep bay, as are nearly all the Emperor's stock of four hundred, and ever had any honest hope, and that has ever had any honest hope, and that has one exception. The clong since been demonstrated to be ground $2,000 to $3,000 a pair. Illinois is now one of the most reliable of republican states—scarcely less than Ohio or Vermont-and the nomination of Lincoln was all that was needed to make a republican triumph there, in this canvass, an absolute certainty. Indiana is no longer reckoned as doubtful, as any man, who has taken pains to inform him self, must by this time clearly understand.

EX PRESIDENT VAN BUREN'S PREDIC-TION.—The New York correspondent of the Rochester Union writes that, last week, while at Sharon Springs, in conversation on political topics with a friend, Murtin Van Buren said—"I am not much given to mathing political predictions, but you may bear this in mind, which I now predict, namely, that Mr. Douglas will carry the state of New York in November."

In making this prognostication the Sage of Lindenwall exhibited his usual perspicu-

y.—News, of yesterday.
In 1848 the "Sage" exhibited "his usual perspiculty' by predicting his own elec-tion in New York, and the editor of the News, who was then helping him to defeat Cass and break down the democratic party, placed faith in that prediction. So now, when the Sage and the News are again enwhen the Sage and the News are again en-deavoring to divide and destroy the demo-cratic party, for the benefit of Mr. Donglas, the same "perspicuity" leads them to in-dulge the hope that N. Y. will aid them in this work. So no doubt it will, by giving Mr. Lincoln an overwhelming majority, as well over the Douglas Know Nothing pur-ty, as over the regular Breckinridge democ-racy.—Milicaukee Sentiuet.

Our Arkansus exchanges bring the mast melancholy and distressing accounts of the effect of the draught on the crops in that State. The Little Rock Gazette, in speaking of the corn crop, which three or four weeks ago, was the most promising that had been for many years, says: "It is now cut short, without the least hope of making enough to feed the people. Nothing but starvation stares many poor farmers in the face, of whom many will not raise carnenough to feed their families till Christmas. Most farmers are cutting their corn down. Our Arkansus exchanges bring the must sition, and detach the thousands who are Most farmers are cutting their corn down, indisposed to be sold by their leaders like a and many a field will not produce one ear of corn. The prospects in this region are shocking enough."

> THE PROPURCIES AND THE EVENTS IN THE PROPUEDIS AND THE EVENTS IS SYBLA.—A Beirut correspondent of the Boston Congregationalist writes: § Still later intelligence informs us that the Koords have descended upon Damascus, and have carried off yast numbers of wo men and children. Thus is the prophecy of Jeremiah again receiving its fulfilment; "Concerning Damascus, Hamath is confounded, and Arpad, for they have heard vil tidings; they are faint-hearted; there is sorrow on the sen; it cannot be quiet.—

As the politicians did not make the divisions, so they cannot head them, but they must be carried to the polls."

No league of selfish or scheming party leaders can prevent the expression of the sentiment of the people, or ignore the great divisions, the third pays his money, goes inside and seats himself in some, goes inside and seats himself in some, goes inside and seats himself. his money, goes inside and seats himself in an obscure corner, from whence he watches the performance with pleasure. EMERSON ETHERIDRE DY COLLESION WITH THE BLOOK PATHERIDIE IN COLLEGION WITH THE BLOOK REPENIACANS. -THE PITADURGH Guzette, of the 6th of August, says a Terro Hante correspondent of the Newark Ad-vertiser, gives the following important in-formation respecting the contest in Indiana: "In regard to the Bell and Everett movement in the state, nothing positive can yet be known as to their running an electoral ticket in Indiana. Hon Richard W. Thomp-son, the acknowledged leader of the party, has expressed his determination to support both the republican state and electoral lick-ter and it is understood, that he will disposition to the support of Lincoln and Hamin. The Hon. E. Etheridge, of Tenoverthrow of the democratic party, which could only be done by defeating their candidates in as many states as possible. He said if he lived in Indiana he would vote for Lincoln; but as he lived in a state where his own ticket had a chance, he should vote for Bell. This advice from a man of the position held by Mr. Etheridge in his party, has great weight with the members of that In other states, the Gazette states the has great weight with the members of

VERMONT HORSES FOR THE FRENCH EM-Penon.—A Newport letter in the New York Post states that the French legation has lately visited Boston to approve chase by a well known horse dealer of five superb Vermont horses for the stables of her of those states, by any device, can be the French Emperor, who already possesses twenty four specimens of the same breed. The new horses are lifteen hands high, havto Lincoln and Hamlin. Were the democ-racy perfectly united, the result could not than 2:50. They are of the Emperor's fatheir tails are of the natural length, with one exception. The cost was between

HORRIBLE OCCUBENCE—THERE CHILD-BEN BURNED TO DEATH.—The Manitowoc Tribune, of the 14th inst., says—"The house of Frank Simot, in the town of Schleiswig, in this county, caught fire on Friday last, and was burned to the ground with all its contents. Three children, aged respectively one, two and three years, were alone in the house, and perished in the flames. The agonized father was at work a short distance iff, and saw the fire but a few minutes after he children had been left alone; but all attempts to enter the house were His hands were terribly burned in attempt ing to tear off some of the boards from the house, and he was compelled to abandon his efforts. A few charred bones was all that could be found after the house was con-aumed. CRAMP IN SWIMMING,-It is well known that the cramp is one of the greatest terrors of the swimmer, but it is not the cramp in tself which drowns him—it is his fear.— The cramp soldon attacks more than one limb, and if the swimmer will but stretch the cramped limb out to its utmost, he will still have his other limbs in active use to reach the shore. The pain, as is well known, is great, but this must be borne if you would save your life. If the cramp you would save your the. If the crumpy seizes the leg, turn over on your back, stretch the limb out stillly, and in a few moments it may be gone, and however great the pain, do not relax the use of that limb, is no muscular action can increase cramp. as no nuncutar action can increase camp, but the reverse. If the stomach is attacked, which will probably prevent the use of the legs, hear with the pain, and float on the back making use of the hands until you get within reach of assistance.

A Confusion-A hand car came in colh Collision—A unit cat can be in collision with a carriage in which were four persons, at the railroad crossing on Bridge street on Mondley afternoon. Two wheels of the carriage were sanished and the hand car was thrown from the track and somewhat damaged. The horses broke loose from the carriage and you in Bridge street. from the carriage and ran up Bridge stucet where they were stopped. Fortunately, no person was injured, although it is a wonder that some were not killed. The rapidity with which the hand cars are in the habit of running at the crossing should be stopped, and no doubt will be, when the matter is brought to the notice of the officers of didnte for the Presidency.

"Mr. Bell, the other slave candidate, rep-"Mr. Bell, the other stave candidate, tep-resents nothing in particular, but anything and everything in general. He is like the Irishman who was desirous of pleading neither 'guilty' nor 'not guilty,' but wi-ling to let the whole subject drop. Like the clerk who refused to work because his oath required him only to support the Constitu-tion, Mr. Hell was going to do nothing hat support the Constitution. He is offered as the representative of 'compromise,' which is against the spirit of the times and the the representation compounts, which is against the spirit of the times and the emergency of the case. He is the rapresentatives of 'masterly inactivity,' when our position, domestic and foreign, requires us to be up and daing."

POLYRICAL DEMORALIZATION,-If there was anything further needed to show how utterly abandoned Douglasism has become, it is farnished in its fusion with the American party in New York.

'My great principle" kicks the beam, and "put nothing but Americans on guard," hecomes the slogan, and "let the people govern themselves," gives way to "Americans must rule America."

There was something manly and dignified in the rejection of the overtures of the Breckinridge party by the Douglasites, but this coalition with a misarable little faction, as impotent in numbers as in influence, is contemptible.

If anything further was necessary to fix the vote of New York for Lincoln, this alliance will do so, for it shows how little of principle there is left in Douglasism. The auction has been held—the property struck off—but there will be a failure in the delivery,.... Chicago Journal.

The late eclipse having been nearly total in Algiers, caused great terror among the natives. On the top of their terraces they made a noise with pestals and mortar, or lighted in their rooms wax candles, of which they purchased a supply at the time of the fete of the Monland—birth-day of Moham-med.—They called to mind with nlavn, that according to tradition. Algiers is to be one lny destroyed under similar circumstances by the sea rising to the hight of Sidir Ren Nour, which crowns one of the summits of Hanzara, and that future navigators, when sailing past will point under their vessel and exclaim——"There stood Algiers."

TANEY ON SLAVERY IN 1818.—At a camp meeting held in Washington county, Maryland, August, 1818, Rev. Jacob Gruber, a Methodist minister, preaching a remarkable sermon exposing the evils of slavery. For this he was tried on the charge of interesting inspection, and against Meeting inspection, and against defined in the charge of the charg cor tais he was tried on the charge of in-citing insurrection and acquitted. Mr. Taney, now Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was attorney for Mr. Gruber, and in the course of his speech said :

"There is no law that forbids us to speak

"There is no law that forbids us to speak of slavery as we think of it. Any man has a right to publish his opinion on that subject whenever he pleases. It is a subject of national concern, and may at all times be freely discussed. Mr. Gruber did quote the language of our great act of national independence, and insisted on the principles contained in that venerated instrument. He did rebuke those masters who, in the expersise of nower, are deaf to the calls of exercise of power, are deaf to the calls of humanity; and he warned them of the evils they might bring upon themselves. He did speak with abborrence of those reptiles who live by trading in human flesh, and enrich themselves by tearing the husband from the wife, the infant from the bosom of the the wile, the mant from the obsolute of the mother; and this, I am instructed, was the head and front of his offending. Shall I content myself with saying that he had a right to this? there is no law to punish him? So far is he from being the object of punishment in any form of proceeding, that we are prepared to maintain the same principles, and to use, if necessary, the same lanuage here in the temple of justice, and in presence of those who are the ministers of the law. A hard accessity, indeed, compels us to endure the evil of slavery for a time. It was imposed upon us by another nation, while we were yet in a state of colonial vassalage. It cannot be easily or suddenly removed. Yet while it continues, it is a blot on our national character, and every eal lover of freedom confidently hopes the it will be effectually, though it must be gradually, wiped away, and carnestly looks for the means by which this necessary object may be best attained. And until it shall be accomplished, until the time shall come when we can point without a blush to the language held in the Declaration of Inthe language held in the Declaration of in-dependence, every friend of humanity will seek to lighten the galling chain of slavery, and better, to the utmost of his power, the wretched condition of the slave.²¹

NEW YORK-MR. SEWARD'S OPINION-A few days ago, Hon. Wm. H. Seward made a short speech in Boston, he being then on his return from Maine. The following is the conclusion of his remarks at Boston:

"I desire now only to say to you that you have arrived at the last stage of this conflict before you reach the triumph [cheers] which is to inaugurate this great policy into the government of the United States he government of the the government of the United States.
[Great cheering.] You will bear yourselves manfully. It believes you, solid men of Boston—if you are here and if you are not here, then the lighter men—all the men of Magenchusetts-to bear onward and forward first in the ranks the flag of freedom I am somewhat turned about, I confess to you, by the strange longues and dialects which I hear, but I believe that I shull speak correctly if I say that I have been down East; and I bring the assurances from that quarter that the whole East is coming to this condict with the resolution. the determination and the confidence of victory. [Applause.] I have heard some democrats make strong claims upon a pop-ular vote in the state of New York. I have not often been instance, but I will remove to correct these remarks, which, of course, are made in ignorance of the truth, by saying to you what I said to the republicans of Maine, when they told me that it was modified. crate in them to say that they would have 20,000 majority for Lincoln and Hamlin, that if you set their majority at their own ligures, and then multiply it by four, you will approximate to the majority in the state of New York. [Great cheering.] I have this same testimony to give you substantially in relation to all the frac states, togethwith the assurance that for the first time this banner will be unfuried with slavery in many of the slave states. [Appliause But let not your thoughts or expectations by confined to the present hour. Tell your fellow citizens that with this victory comes the end of the power of slavery in the country. I think I may assume that a democrat is a man who maintains the creed of orne or the other of the branches of the democratic parly at the present day, and assuming that to be so, I tell you that the last democrat in the United States is already lawn? (Great choosing and laughter.)

[Great cheering and laughter.] CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD. At a recent meeting of the bondholders of this road, held in New York, it was voted to authorize the company to carry out the proposed arrangements for extending the coad from Osbkosh,—its present terminus—to Appleton, a distance of twenty-three niles. The cost of this extension will be wiles. The cost of this extension was $250,000, and the citizens of Appleton con $250,000, and the citizens of Appleton contribute a portion of the expense, taking stock in payment. W. B. Ogden, president of the road, stated that the wheat land along the line of the road, this year, yielded 35 to 40 bushels to the acre, and of a very superior quality. The crop is very large, and field hands getting $2,50 per day, and were scarce at that. To do the business of the road this tall, the company would have to run freight trains at night, loading and unloading by day. The equipment of the road has been doubled, but even now will scarcely do the work required. Mr. Ogden denied the truth of the statement that the road has been carrying tatement that the road had been carrying freight without profit.—Chicago Democrat.

LET THE PROPER ELECT.—The Albany Evening Journal has the following just remarks on the schemes now in vogue to pre-rent un election of president by a popular Few greater calamities, in these times, Few greater colamities, in these times, could happen, than the attempt to elect a President by the house of representatives. The delay of all public business, as in the contest for speaker last winter, would be actions evil. The bribery and corruption that would be engendered would disgrace the nation. Moreover it is very doubtful if the house would not adjourn without making a choice, in which case that intense pro-slavehoise, in which case that intense pro-sk wery body, the senate, would cleet Joseph Lame. In every light that such a contingency can be viewed it is a fearful calamity. Not that the country would not survive it, for we indulge in no such silly alarms.—But every friend of good morals, public order, and republicar, institutions, cought, to der, and republican institutions, ought to deprecute a congressional contest for Presi-dent, far more than he would the election of the most objectionable candidate, now in nomination, by the people; he ought to strive to prevent it because of its demoralizing and unti-democratic tendencies, as well a because it would probably inflict a worse than J. B. upon the country for our next President.

The St. Louis News very properly re marks that no other state in the Union can equal Wisconsin as a wheat growing state, in proportion to her size and population.

The Coming Tournament.

While there will be much of the usoful and the practical in the coming National Horse Show and Ludies' Equestrian Fair, there will also be much of the romantic and the beautiful to adorn and embellish it .--Somebody has said-we do not now recollect who-that if he were asked what were the two most beautiful objects in nature, he would reply "a splendid horse and a magnif. icent woman. Without stopping to criticise the taste of the enthusiast, in placing "God's last best gift to man," side by side with any other creation of nature's handiwork, we have simply to say that we have no doubt the noblest and most beautiful specimens of both will be here during the the highway and bridge fund.

In speaking of this fair, we have already own gity and its environs, not a few are in training for the occasion, while the private gentleman who has an eye for the gay and stately carriage horse, and the farmer look ing for the strong and plodding draft horse or the useful roadster, will each be gratifed, and able, if he desires, to make selections for himself.

But THE feature of the occasion will be the competition for the prizes by the lady equestriaus. A fine, gold hunting-cased watch, and chain to match, are not undesirable objects to any one; but when they can be had by riding a mile, we would were we a lady, try for them though we were compelled to pace that distance ten times over. We happen to know, however, that there are many ladies exactly of our opinion, for they are coming from Iowa, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota and all over Wisconsin .-This fact added to the military display expected on the occasion, cannot but make the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th days of September next gala days.

We would not willingly deceive ourselves. or our friends at a distance, but from the notices of the press, and from letters every day received by the managers of the Pair, we confidently believe there will be a larger assemblage of fair women and brave men congregated together in this beautiful city in September next, than upon any other occasion known in the history of Wisconsin. Large as the crowd expected is, however, ample arrangements have been made for their reception and accommodation.

We can say therefore to every body come to the Fair; every body with but one exception-the old backelor. Let him stay at home. We would not subject him to the panishment he will be compelled to bear. for dark and flashing eyes will send their arrows at him, stray and sunny curls will float in the sun beams and dazzle his brain, and rosy lips will talk so eloquently to him that he will curse the past, and bemoan the future. Let him not come. The fair will not be good for him.

NO NEWS FROM THE LA CROSSE CONVEN-110x.—In consequence of the great amount of electricity in the atmosphere, we are unable to obtain despatches from the La Crosse Congressional Convention. Should news he received from there this evening, an extra will be issued.

CLUB MERTING .- We learn by a letter received from Beloit this morning that Mr. Codding will pass his appointments both for Janesville and Beloit. He goes to Illinois, but may return to this state in September. The meeting of the club will, however, be held, and Messrs. Williams, Sloan, Hawes and Comstock are announced to speak.

It is probable that the nomination for congress made at La Crosse will be received before the meeting adjourns.

For the Daily Gazette MESSES. Epirons :- Your correspondent, Robert," set me to thinking, and in answer to his request to be informed of the meaning of the word " vim," would cite him to a Latin lexicon. It is from "vis," and as rendered there, means " power, strength, force, vigor, fury, violence." It has a plurol of "vires," but rarely used. The general acceptation of the word is "spirit, life." I am not versed in mystic lore, but this is undoubtedly the true signification of this к. little word.

A VALUABLE INVENTION .- At the Big Mill in this city, yesterday, we saw in operstion one of Akin & Babcock's grain separetors and silent feeders combined. It feeds the grain without noise or jar, at the same time extracting the heated air caused by friction in grinding, also separating oats, straw and every kind of toul stuff lighter than wheat. Its construction is simple, not likely to get out of order, a small bell ringisg when the grain is exhausted. In fact it is a real automatic machine, doing everything to perfection that is claimed for it .-Every miller should have one. We are well acquainted with some of the millers who have given the agent their certificates of its merits and know them to be men qualified to judge in such matters.

All millers wishing to give the machine a trial will address M. K. Jones, Janesville.

Newell has the Atlantic and maga zines generally, for September.

Gerring READY. -- Ben Bornheim is getting ready for the active fall trade in prospect. He is now receiving a very large and very excellent stock of clothing, and like the sensible trader he is, advertises it freely, Ben has become very generally known throughout the country, and is determined to extend his acquaintance and his trade. He will do this, for he keeps a full assortment of seasonable goods, and sells at such a price that his customers are very likely to call again. See his advertisement.

Proceeding of the City Connett, Present-All the aldermen but Mr. Belton and the Major. Ald. Dickson in the chair. The rules wer suspended, and an order for grading Bridge street adopted. Ald. Dickson reported an ordinance fining the duties and powers of the chief engineer of the hee department and his assistants, which was discussed, amended, and laid over until the next meeting.

A communication was presented from the officers and a lage portion of the members of Rock River engine company No. 1, surrendering their agine and hose to the city, and asking that the company he disbanded. Referred to the ure department committee. Ald, Bates infeduced an order for opening a road through the land of David Cobb, provided Mr. Cobb will make a deed of the land to the city on the payment of $50 from Considerable discussion ensued as to the proper manner of effecting this object, and said that from every direction we learn that the order was fightly referred to the ulderfine and fast horses will be here to compete men from the 3d ward, who were requested for the prizes; and we know that in our to report at the sext meeting of the council. Adjourned.

WHEN IS THAT SHOW COMING?--To day quite a number of amusing political arricatures, most of them at the expense of the "harmonious democracy," were displayed in the wildow of Newell's bookstore. Among a crowl who were enjoying them was one who evidently failed to appreciate them, and turning to a bystauder, with great gravity, asked ushen is that show coming." Little as he understood the design of "the pictures," he unconsciously asked a very pertinent question. That show is coming the 6th of next November. The admittance will be free to the crowd, but some of the proprietors will find it a losing concern.

ROCE COUNT' PRODUCTS .- M. V. Glass, residing near this city, left at our office a few days since several ears of white flint corn 16 inches in length.
